FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

STICE RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARD

CHARLESTON -- Mary Stice, daughter of Bartlett and Louis Rhoades of Ramsey, received a Pi Omega Pi-Outstanding Member Award from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

The Pi Omega Pi award is given annually to the student who provides a leadership role in the organization and consistently provides assistance for completing organization projects. Overall, this student provides the most positive role model for other members to follow.

A 1974 graduate of Ramsey High School, Stice is a senior business education major at Eastern. Stice resides in Altamont with her husband, Steve, and sons Eric and Greg.

Eastern is a residential university with an enrollment of 10,700 on-campus students. The university has as its highest priority teaching in its classrooms and laboratories complemented by strong academic support services.
